

BLUE AND GRAY EDUCATION SOCIETY GREAT PHOTOGRAPHY HUNT

Check out the results from last week's Medford Photo #58, then scroll down to see this week's mystery Medford Photo #59—and email us what you know!

The USS Steamer (Tugboat?) Clyde

One of our cohorts adds this additional info: "It's the "Union Tugboat Clyde on James River, Virginia. The name Clyde is on the bow of the ship. There are six men on the deck. There are pylons in the water. There are more ships in the background."

Another cohort shared the below photo and this additional bit of info: "This is a different photograph of the Clyde with a handwritten note that says 'Tugboat Clyde, Alexandria; May 6th, 1864/Chartered June 1st, 1863.' It is unequivocally the same Clyde as in the BGES photograph, even though there are two differences from the BGES photo: 1) The name 'Clyde' is in front of the wheelhouse; and 2) The roof of the wheelhouse does not extend to the bow."

What is the Medford Collection?

In the late 19th century, Gen. Samuel C. Lawrence collected photographic images like we used to collect baseball cards. It was his passion, and whenever copies were presented or opportunities existed to grow his collection, he collected—nearly 3,700 images. Most are familiar to us—Lawrence did not acquire images shot entirely or exclusively for him. Thus what we know is that the original and countless copies exist around the world.

Lawrence was able to identify some and marked them accordingly. Some no doubt were misidentified, while others were unknown to him. In partnership with the Medford Historical Society & Museum, BGES would like to put the spotlight on these timeless looks at the past and provide Medford with additional meaningful information about its collection. You can help by joining BGES's GREAT PHOTOGRAPHY HUNT: REVEALING THE TRUE STORY.

We want to hear from you the answers to the great four questions: Who or What is this? Where is this? When was this? Where is the original of this?

You can reply to this Dispatch with what you know. We will compile and evaluate the answers and forward credible information to the Medford Historical Society.

We know that you know or you know someone who knows!

Now we all want to know.

Medford Photo Provenance Project Dispatch is published every Wednesday. This is an active project in conjunction with the Medford Historical Society and is an effort to improve the provenance and documentation of their collection. Lacking a staff expertise in the Civil War and photography, they are counting on the Civil War, historical, and photographic communities to help them fill in the empty spaces. With over 3,600 images, the project is a longterm one. In addition to these weekly releases, BGES will be posting 15 additional images at their website for examination and comment. The posting will change monthly, allowing us to showcase over 200 images a year.
